X The reason assigned

X Rheumatism.

Copy of order no. 147 dated 30-6-91 from the Deputy Commissioner Kolar to the Amildar of Malur Taluk.

From an examination made today of the parties present ~~concerned~~, and a perusal of the old records of the case, it is observed that in 1874 the Pattel-ship ~~of the Taluk~~ was taken away from Nanje Gowda and given to Chikkia muni Reddy. A Sanad to this effect seems to have also been granted to him (vide order no. 236 of 21-8-74). Bhyregowda, (Son of Nanje Gowda) the petitioner has therefore been told that his claims cannot be disposed of summarily and that, if he desired, a ~~st~~ regular suit ~~may~~ might be filed.

As now desired by

Chikk

X (because the former failed to come & live at Malur within the time given. 3 months.)

Chikka Muni Reddy,
his son Venkata Reddy
may be appointed to the post, which place he is considered fit to fill

To

The Deputy Commissioner
Kotah Contingent

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 1183/657 of the 18th June last forwarding for report the appeal petition of Govind Nand Bairagi of Nimbahera, I have the honor to state that the Fatehgarh of Akbar originally belonged to the petitioner's family, and it was registered in the name of the petitioner's father Nanje Gowda.

2. As Nanje Gowda was living in a different village called Kadarkhedi in the Mewar State and was not performing the duties of his office, Chicka Nowniddy, a resident of Nimbahera, was appointed to discharge the Patil's duties, as a temporary measure.

3. In 1841, when the arrangements for the regular village fees had taken place, the Chowdhry Agency, the Lepers Committee, and Mr Bain for the settlement of Civil questions, and Mary Gwala for granted his claim as the native Civil Surgeon attended to the matter and was examined, but, in default the said forfeit his bail and Chief Commissioner would be confirmed.

4. Mary Gwala pleaded guilty and fine was given him to settle himself at Bain.

5. When the Constable in his affi. No. 214 dated 20th August 87, reported to the effect that Mary Gwala did not come to live in Bain, ordered by the Lepers Committee, and provided by himself, Mr Richard Symons issued order No. 230 dated 21st August 87, empowering Chief Commissioner in his settlement at Bain to be granted that Mary Gwala had repeatedly failed to settle himself at Bain & therefore he did so satisfactorily.

6. On the 21st December 89, Chief Commissioner applied to me when settling the Journal and Bain Cases, that the name of his client was Tuesday, registered in his Court as the old and infirm.

7. On the 29th December 89, the applicant

Bain

Baire Gouda presented a petition to me stating that his father Maje Gouda was dead, that he himself was a minor to conduct for the appointment carried, that Chick Komeeddy was only acting Patil and that as he, Baire Reddy, is now a major, and fit to do Patil's work, he may be appointed Patil, and the application bore Venkatreddy's name, registered, he refused.

8. On the 4th April 87, the correspondence was submitted to your office, and you have issued order on the 29th June 87, directing the registration of the Patil's office in the name of Chick Komeeddy's son, Venkatreddy and rejecting the claim of the appellant who was however ordered to file a regular suit in a competent Court to establish his right. Venkatreddy has accordingly been registered as Patil, vested of his father.

9. Against this order Baire Gouda has now appealed.

10. The Revenue Commissioner's order dated 20th March 87, and it will be observed that the appellant's father Maje Gouda forfeited

forfeited the right to the Patels office altogether, except his own continued life-time. He will be unfair, at the distant time, to deprive Parvatibai of his Patelship when he is and has been discharging his duties to the entire satisfaction of his superior officers and villagers, he being removed, Virbhadr and fit to the Patels work in a large and important town like Malur.

11. Under the order in force, appeal also is appointed by the order of a competent Revenue officer in respect to a hereditary village office, is found to appeal against the order within a stated time, but in the present case, Nagir Gonda appointed in the Deputy Commissioner's order of 1874, and his own consent, after needed length of time, were some formed to have the matter reopened under the plea that he was a minor till then.

12. He memorial proceeds together with the appeal petition and its en-
